Ongoing preparation also happens within the home. Parents and candidates are given a textbook to read and discuss together.

Why Family Preparation?

1. Parents are the primary catechists of their children. One of the missions of the Church is to support parents in the passing on of the faith.
2. At Baptism parents and godparents promised to raise the child in the faith and pass on the message of Salvation.
3. The home represents the church. The Catholic Church teaches the "ecclesia domestica"—The home is a church that welcomes and teaches your children.
4. Young children look-up to their parents as models of how to live. It is often difficult in today's busy society to take time aside and spend it together as a family. This provides and opportunity for family time.

"Parents are the first and most important educators of their own children, and they also possess a fundamental competence in this area: They are educators because they are parents."

-Pope John Paul II
